Recommended Reading for "Let's Compare: Healthy Analogies"

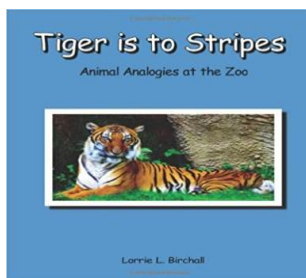

Animalogy by Marianne Berkes

Grades 1-2. Find the similarities between even the most incompatible animals with rhyming analogies. Comparisons include sounds, physical adaptations, behaviors, and animal classes. Free online resources and support at SylvanDellPublishing.com --Book Jacket

Beach is to Fun: A Book of Relationships by Pat Brisson

Grades K-3. A trip to the beach-and all the excitement that surrounds it-unfolds in this cheerful picture book chock-full of engaging wordplay and sensory detail. The rhythmic text explores the concept of analogies in an accessible, immediate way. Children can begin to make their own associations and pairings as they long for a day by the sea! --Book Jacket

Tiger is to Stripes: Animal Analogies at the Zoo by Lorrie L. Birchall

Grades 1-3. Expressive photographs of real zoo animals beautifully demonstrate how analogies make comparisons between size, color, geography, collective nouns and much more... It's never been easier or more fun for kids to learn about analogies! --Book Jacket

Analogies for Critical Thinking Grade 3 by Ruth Foster

Grades 1-4. Approach analogies as puzzles. To solve them, students need to use cognitive processes and critical-thinking skills. These exercises present word and/or picture relationships in several different ways. The goal is to develop skills in visual imagery, reading comprehension, vocabulary development, reasoning, and test-taking. --Book Jacket

Analogies for Young Kids by Jan Zebrack

Grades 1-6. Analogies are important in how we write, think, and speak about the world. Fun exercises and exciting photos educates as it entertains, inspiring children to understand and write analogies of their own. --Book Jacket
