	Baby Goes to Market by Atinuke Ages 3 - 7. Math is everywhere! This adorable counting book tells the tale of a baby who takes in the bustling sights, sounds and foods at a West African market. Winner of 2018 Mathical Book prize.
	Is 2 a Lot? An Adventure With Numbers by Annie Watson Grades PK-2. Two is not a lot of pennies, but it is a lot of smelly skunks. Ten is not a lot of popcorn pieces, but it is a lot of chomping dinosaurs! Join Joey and his mother as they count and learn the meaning of value and numbers. 2020 Mathical Book Honor Book
	The Blunders: A Counting Catastrophe! by Christina Soontornvat Grades 1-2. Readers will delight in this hilarious counting tale as the ten Blunder children take turns counting themselves-- forward, and backward, by twos and threes, in English and Spanish--and always come up one short.
	Ten in the Bed by Jane Cabrera Ages 4-8. Ten sleepy toys stretch, yawn, and snuggle in bed, ready to sleep. But one by one, they fall out of bed and on to the floor. Uh oh! This charming counting story is perfect for story time, bedtime and ANY time!
	Sheep Won't Sleep by Judy Cox Ages 4-8. Clarissa can't sleep! When even counting sheep doesn't help her doze off, she tried pairs of alpacas instead. Two, four, six . . . then llamas by fives . . . then yaks by tens! Sheep Won't Sleep is part bedtime story, part math practice. A fun way to introduce and reinforce counting in groups.
