

Recommended Reading for “The Elevator”

| | |
|---|--|
|  | The Elevator by Yael Frankel - translated by Kit Maude (2020) Ages 4 - 8. The Elevator is a funny and heartwarming tale of unexpectedly big friendships formed out of a routine encounter in a tiny space. With a fun, elevator-shaped trim size, this picture book makes a wonderful introduction to the power of unexpected encounters, unlikely friendships, and make the most out of what we have. --Amazon |
|  | The Longest Elevator Ride: A Rhyming Children's Book by Caitlin Jones (2014) Ages Baby – 11. Join Cindy as she stops on every floor meeting new people and singing her elevator song every time the elevator stops. “Elevator, elevator, please go down, take me gently to the ground. Who will I meet today on the elevator?” --Amazon |
|  | Going Up! By Sherry J. Lee (2020) Ages 3 – 7. An elevator ride to a birthday party turns into a shared experience bursting with joy in this multicultural story about community, togetherness and the special feeling of belonging. --Amazon |
|  | The Elevator Man by Stanley Trachtenberg (2009) Ages 4 – 8. Nathan thinks the man who operates the elevator in his apartment building has the best job in the world. But the elevator man has dreams of his own, and when one day the building's elevator is replaced with an automated version, Nathan is amazed to see that everybody's dreams have come true! --Amazon |
|  | Elevator Bird by Sarah Williamson (2020) Ages 4 – 7. Elevator Bird helps hotel guests get to their rooms and gives great advice about all the best sights in town. He helps the staff get where they need to go, and always has an encouraging word. Elevator Bird makes everyone's day brighter. --Amazon |