

Laundry Day

By Heidi Bee Roemer

Great-grandma used a washboard and a basin long ago.
She filled her tub with water and scrub-a-dubbed the clothes.

But now when clothes need washing,
Mom fills the wash machine.
My jammies go swish-swash! swish-swash!
and come out wet and clean.

Great-grandma used wood clothespins and hung wet clothes outside.
My mom puts my pajamas
in the dryer til they're dry!
