

Meow for Milk

by Heidi Bee Roemer

I have sixteen cats that I adore.

I buy their milk at the grocery store.

A gallon of milk; they love that stuff!

My sixteen cats will lap it up.

I could also buy four quarts, and that would feed my sixteen hungry cats.

And if four quarts are hard to find,
I'd simply purchase eight cold pints.

Eight pints equals sixteen cups;
For sixteen cats, it's just enough.

Tomorrow they will mew for more-- and back I'll go to the grocery store.
