Stink Stank Stunk

By Jane Yolen

If you startle a skunk,
It can spray a big stink,
A great stench that can linger all day.
It stomps its front feet
Just to warn, lifts its tail,
And will blast anything in its way.

Some folk think that baths
In the juice of tomato
Will wash away all of the smell.
And still others say
That vanilla or soap
Or a mouthwash will do just as well.

But the skunk doesn't care.
It just wants you long gone,
And the spray is its way to go free.
So, remember, if skunks
Have moved onto your land,
Please do not send them to me.
