

Recommended Books for “Let’s Go Sledding”

Red Sled, by Patricia Thomas

Ages 2-5 years. Dad + lad + red sled = magic! In this warm story, a boy and his father venture outside for a winter night of sledding. Climbing aboard their red sled, they zoom down the hill before returning home for a mug of hot chocolate. Patricia Thomas’ loving story, affectionately illustrated by Chris L. Demarest, is told with utmost simplicity in rhyming pairs of words. –Amazon

Ten on the Sled, by Kim Norman

Ages 1-4 years. In the land of the midnight sun, all the animals are having fun speeding down the hill on Caribou’s sled. But as they go faster and faster, Seal, Hare, Walrus and the others all fall off ... until just the caribou is left, only and lonely. Now, a reindeer likes flying, but not alone, so all the animals leap onto the sled again! –Amazon

Max and Marla, by Alexandra Boiger

Ages 3-5 years. Max and Marla are best friends. And aspiring Olympians! With their eyes on the prize, they know exactly what it’ll take to reach sledding success: preparation, practice, and perseverance. So when rusty blades, strong winds and difficult slopes get in their way, Max and Marla realize true joy lies not in winning but in friendship. –Amazon

Fancy Nancy: There’s No Day Like a Snow Day, by Jane O’Connor

Ages 3-6 years. Even a snow day is fancy when Nancy is around! Ooh la la! It’s a blizzard. School is canceled. And Nancy, Jo Jo, Bree and Freddy are excited to go outside and play. From making snow angels to building snowmen to catching snowflakes ... everyone has “snow” much fun! –Amazon

Red Sled, by Lita Judge

Ages 1-5 years. In this almost wordless picture book, a host of woodland creatures take a child’s sled for a nighttime joy ride. Their whimsical ride is gorgeously depicted in bold watercolors, complemented by humorous expressions and pitch-perfect sound effects. With a timeless tone and classic characters, Red Sled will become a wintertime favorite. –Amazon
