The Plumbers

by Charles Ghigna

We lay pipes straight and round.
Inside. Outside. Up and down.
From the basement to the top.
We plumb all day and never stop.

Cutting. Fitting. Each new pipe.
We measure twice to get it right.
Beneath the floors. Row by rows.
Behind sealed walls water flows.

We take turns and work long hours.
Plumbing sinks, installing showers.
Shiny faucets all brand new.
We install them all for you.

We take our time. We do not race.
We set each pipe in perfect place.
Floor by floor, we spend our days
Engineering you a maze!
